

Application for Membership and Certificate of Participation in the 100 Percent Club

Commentary

Attorney General Ashley Moody is asking all Florida businesses and organizations to join her in the fight to end human trafficking by raising awareness through workforce training. This application process is designed to identify and recognize those businesses and organizations that have implemented policies aimed at reducing human trafficking and agree to take steps to promote public awareness of human trafficking.

Any business or organization may submit an application for membership and for a certificate of participation. There is no processing fee for the application. The Florida Office of the Attorney General reserves the right to deny participation or recognition.

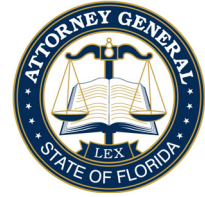

Instructions for Form

- Applicant Information: Provide the full legal name of the applicant and its office address. The contact point is the individual to whom any correspondence may be addressed regarding the application or documentation provided.
- Business/Organization Information: Completion of this section is not required but optional. However, the information provided may be useful when identifying best practices for combating and preventing human trafficking within certain industries, businesses, or organizations.
